Hong N is the leading unit of Suzhou Non-Governmental Education Chamber of Commerce, as well as the vice president of Jiangsu Province Non-Governmental Education Chamber of Commerce. It is also the vice director of PCTE*.

The School features a staff of only foreign teachers, Chinese teaching assistant assisted, small class sizes and advanced teaching methods. All classes are taught by native English speakers and Chinese TAs follow up and help students review. Students range from children, primary, middle to high school students to adults and enterprise on-site training programs. The interactive, interest-oriented western teaching style will inspire students to speak and participate in a pure English environment. Hong N believes in a student-centered principle, good teaching quality, low training price and sincere education service, to increase learning interests, confidence and improve communication skills.

Hong N School has been collaborating with more than 20 public/private kindergarten, primary, middle school, and high schools, providing stable foreign teachers for high quality English classes for them since 2007. Hong N has always been a good recommendation for schools which features bilingual language learning style. It is one of the most influential and most renowned English Training centers in Suzhou.

Additionally, Hong N has the Chinese department, which is for teaching foreigners English. Free Chinese lessons will be provided by Chinese teaching department and our helpful TA's. One-on-one Mandarin language class in China provides you more opportunities to practice your Chinese and get corrected in time and speak Chinese all the time during the lesson. Having developed a comprehensive system to teach one-on-one Chinese, Hong N School is devoted to making more contributions to the one-on-one Chinese instruction development in China. It is designed by Chinese teachers to meet the needs and interests of the individual student.
